The Lord of All

For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Gathering Music and Processional

We carry in a flame, the Bible, and a prayer cloth. May we trust the Light to guide us, the Word to teach us, and prayer to knit our lives together with God as we begin our time of worship.

*Each one of us is but a fragment of Jesus, one member of the body, one branch, one leaf of the vine. Only together can we grasp the whole.
We need each other to discover the whole Christ, the whole person each of us is called to be.*

When we have been touched by Jesus, when the Spirit is stirred up in the depths of our being, when we dare to own Paul's words, "I live now not I, but Christ lives in me," then we can no longer live for ourselves alone. I am compelled to share my faith with others. God's presence in me overflows into the lives of others and I become receptive to His presence and power in others. You are different from me but we were born involved in each other.

Our purpose is to worship and praise God together, to pray for and encourage each other to live our covenant with God and to share Christ's good news with others. As Anabaptist Christians we will reach out to others, welcome all people, be aware of our neighbors and respond to their needs, and give ourselves to service.
